Subject : Notification of Company Disputes

To : President,
The Stock Exchange of Thailand

Thai Rubber Latex Group Public Company Limited hereby reports the progress regarding significant litigation and disputes as follows:

Counterparty Information:

A private individual

Dispute Details:

On 28 March 2024, a subsidiary of the Company was sued as a defendant in a civil case seeking eviction from the disputed land without requiring the destruction of the rubber trees planted thereon. The plaintiff claimed ownership of the land in question. The subsidiary argued that it had acquired the land, totaling approximately 237 rai, with valid title deeds from local residents and had openly possessed and utilized the land for rubber plantation purposes since 2006.

On 17 December 2024, the Court of First Instance ruled in favor of the plaintiff, ordering the plaintiff to compensate the subsidiary for the value of the rubber trees at approximately THB 7.1 million with interest. However, the subsidiary was ordered to pay THB 0.8 million as compensation for opportunity loss of land use and court fees on behalf of the plaintiff.

On 29 April 2026, the Court of Appeal upheld the Trial Court 's judgement, ordering the subsidiary to vacate from the land and to pay court fees on behalf of the plaintiff totaling Baht 30,000. The Court also dismissed the subsidiary' s counterclaim requesting the plaintiff to compensate for rubber trees in the approximate totaling Baht 7.1 million, plus interest. However, the subsidiary is in the process of filing a petition to the Supreme Court to contest the Court of Appeal's ruling.

As of 31 March 2026, the subsidiary has recognized a provision for potential damages in the total amount of THB 1.3 million and an allowance for impairment of land use rights in the amount of THB 3.9 million and allowance of impairment loss on rubber plantation development costs totaling Baht 12.2 million.

Please be informed accordingly,

Truly yours,

(Mr. Pattarapol Wongsasuthikul)
